

REINSURANCE TREATY AGREEMENT

This Treaty is made and entered into by and between Sentinel Mutual Assurance, a mutual insurance company (the "Company"), and the undersigned Reinsurer, and shall take effect from 1 January 2026 for a period of twelve months unless earlier terminated in accordance with the provisions set out below. The parties intend this instrument to govern the reinsurance of the Company's property casualty business as described herein.

FINANCIAL TERMS

The Reinsurer's obligations under this Treaty shall attach only after the Company's ultimate net loss arising out of any one occurrence exceeds two million five hundred thousand dollars ($2,500,000). Once that threshold has been exceeded, the Reinsurer shall indemnify the Company for the amount of loss in excess thereof, up to a further five million dollars ($5,000,000) of loss excess of the attachment point, such that the Reinsurer's maximum liability in respect of any one occurrence shall not exceed $5,000,000. In consideration of the protection afforded hereunder, the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer an annual premium in the amount of four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000), payable in advance on the inception date of this Treaty.

EXCLUSIONS

The coverage provided under this Treaty does not extend to losses arising, whether directly or indirectly, from war or warlike operations, nuclear reaction or radioactive contamination, acts of terrorism, pollution or environmental contamination, asbestos-related bodily injury, cyber-attacks or the loss of electronic data, or any pandemic or communicable disease event.

CLAIMS, REPORTING & DISPUTE RESOLUTION

The Company shall notify the Reinsurer within thirty days of becoming aware of any loss reasonably likely to involve this Treaty, and shall report outstanding loss reserves to the Reinsurer on a quarterly basis. All claims shall be settled in United States Dollars regardless of the currency in which the underlying policy was written. Any dispute arising under this Treaty shall be resolved by arbitration in New York, New York, under the rules of the American Arbitration Association, with each party appointing one arbitrator and the two so appointed jointly selecting a third. This Treaty shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York.
